

I am opposed to LPFM stations taking priority over current FM Translators. KLOVE is the only FM station of it's format in my listening area. KLOVE offers a positive and encouraging influence in our community. The loss of this station would be a detriment to the community. It is one of the few radio stations in this community and nationwide that offers a positive and encouraging format.